Ref: Government Memo.No.2847/51-1, Public (Refugees) dated 10-8-51.

I submit the following report about the two refugees referred to in the Government memorandum cited.

Sri Nandumal Tulasidas :- This refugee was running a fancy shop till November, 1950 in the daily vegetable market of Bellary town. He could not continue it as it appears no business worth the name could be transacted in that locality. He wanted to start fresh business in Adoni bus stand, but he could not be provided with a business premises as no stalls were available till April, 1951. He is now running a sweetmeat shop in Adoni Bus stand. The Government may be pleased to permit the refugee to continue the change of business from that of a fancy shop to sweetmeat shop.

Sri Nandumal Tulasidas is not in a position to refund the excess amount drawn by him. He is given two maunds of sugar every month. The refugee could not continue the fancy shop for the reasons stated in this office Ref.C.No.13649/51 B.9 dated 4.9.51 As his business in fancy shop failed he had to join for another business. He is now running a sweet-meat shop in Adoni bus stand.

As a special case he may be exempted from the payment of excess amount and allowed to continue the present business.

Ref From the Collr of Bellary L.Rs No. 13649/57-B3 dated 4.9.57 and 28.11.57

In the circumstances reported by the Collr of Bellary in his letters cited, the Govt permit Sri Nandumal Tulasidas, as a special case to change his business from fancy shop to sweetmeat shop without the obligation to refund immediately the difference between the loan amount already drawn by him for the fancy shop business and the basic amount fixed for sweetmeat shop namely Rs. 500/- subject to the condition that he repays the entire loan amount already drawn by him for the fancy shop business plus ration allowance if any, with interest, in the usual manner.

C/No. 6618/51 Public (Ref) Sec'y.

Sub: Dps. from Pakistan - Rehabilitation - Bellary Town
Sri. Nandumal Tulasidas - change of business to sweetmeat shop.

Read. 1) From the Collr. of Bellary L.Rs No. 13614/51-A9 dated 4.9.51 and 28.11.51. (top 1-4 cf)

2) Memo No. 6618/51-1 Pub (Ref) dated 28-10-51 (pp 5-6 cf)

The correspondence at top. 1-4 cf. may be perused.

Sri. Nandumal Tulasidas, a dp. from Pakistan was allotted to Bellary Town for rehabilitation with a business loan of Rs. 1000/- to do fancy shop business. (p 1 cf) The Collr. has reported that as the dp. has failed in fancy shop business, he has now changed over to sweetmeat shop. ~~and that~~ He has also recommended that the dp. may be permitted to continue the present business In this connection it may be mentioned that the basic sum fixed for sweetmeat business is Rs. 500/- Hence the dp. has to refund to Govt. the excess amount of Rs. 500/- already drawn by him if he is to be permitted to change over to sweetmeat business. (Fancy 1000 - sweetmeat 500 = 500) The Collr. who has been consulted in the matter (pp 5-6 cf) has reported that the dp. is not in a position to refund immediately the excess amount of Rs. 500/- and has recommended that as a special case, he may be exempted from payment of excess amount. (p 9 cf) In the circumstances the only course which seems to be open to Govt. is to permit the dp. to run sweetmeat shop without the obligation to refund immediately the excess amount of Rs. 500/- subject to the condition that he repays the entire amount of loan ~~ad~~ already drawn by him plus ration allowance in ~~the~~ equal monthly ~~after the expiry of three years from the date of last disbursement of loan as already ordered in G.O. The proposal of Pub(Reg) is to permit the d.p, as a special case, to change his business from fancy shop to sweetmeat shop without refunding the excess loan drawn by him (viz the difference between the loan amount already drawn for the fancy shop business and the basic amount (of Rs 500) fixed for sweetmeat shop) subject to the condition that he repays the entire amount of loan already drawn by him plus ration allowance in the usual manner. Fin may agree. A number of similar cases have been agreed to in this Dept. for the reason that there is no other alternative to safeguard the loan already paid by the Govt.

The draft memo below may be accepted and the case returned to Pub (Reg)
